The Mozel Sanders Foundation To Feed The Homeless Tomorrow

Indianapolis IN, March 25, 2020: The Mozel Sanders Foundation, Inc. in conjunction with the Castleton Outback will be feeding approximately 100 homeless individuals this Thursday, March 25, 2020, as part of its Helping Hands Lunch Giveaway. We invite the press to join us at our first stop beginning at 11am at the Wheeler Mission. Afterwards, we will also be handing out lunches at the Downtown Public Library and at the American Legion.

Stephanie Sanders, Executive Director and Past President/CEO of the organization, shares "We are again humbled and thankful to our partners who are working with us to help make this challenging environment more bearable. While everyone is sheltered-in, we know that many do not have a shelter to go to and no meal at home."

Ms. Sanders is the daughter-in-law of Founder the Late Rev. Mozel Sanders and the widow of the Late Rev. Roosevelt Sanders, Sr. and has been the President and CEO since Rev. Roosevelt's passing in 2010. Her youngest son, Stephen Mozel James Sanders, is the current President and CEO.
