Mozel Sanders Foundation Plans on Feeding Indianapolis Families in November

Indianapolis IN, June 15, 2020: Entering its 49th year, The Mozel Sanders Foundation plans to feed on Thanksgiving Day despite the challenges of COVID-19.

Stephanie Sanders, Executive Director and Past President/CEO of the organization, shares "Our plan is to move forward with our normal preparations as we are sensing that there will be an even greater need this year compared to last year."

Board Member Michael Ruggiero is leading the effort to develop a secondary plan in case social distancing is still in place. "Our plan is to determine in mid – late September which plan we will put into action. We are hoping that the social distancing we are doing now will help get the coronavirus under control so that we can operate business as usual."

"Times like these we are truly put to the test. Working together and continuing to serve is a testament to the vision and legacy of this organization." states Stephen Mozel James Sanders, President and CEO

Ms. Sanders is the daughter-in-law of Founder the Late Rev. Mozel Sanders and the widow of the Late Rev. Roosevelt Sanders, Sr. and had been the President and CEO since Rev. Roosevelt's passing in 2010. Her youngest son, Stephen Mozel James Sanders, is the current President and CEO.
