Essential Workers Scholarship Awardees Recognized

Rev. Roosevelt Sanders Scholarships Given to 6 Individuals

Indianapolis IN: Celebrating its 49th year, The Mozel Sanders Foundation is recognizing 6 essential workers for its Rev. Roosevelt Sanders 2020 Scholarship Awards.

"We felt that this year it was important to recognize those who have consistently put themselves on the frontlines during this pandemic crisis," shares Stephen Mozel James Sanders, CEO of Mozel Sanders Foundation. "Their consistent sacrifice day in and day out does not go unnoticed."

The Foundation normally gives scholarships every year to middle school, high school and college students in honor of Rev. Roosevelt Sanders, but this year thought it fitting to honor essential workers for their efforts.

"We were blessed, with the help of our annual partner Financial Center Federal Credit Union, to honor 6 essential workers this year," states Stephanie Sanders, COO of Mozel Sanders Foundation. "As their contribution to our community is so important, we wanted them to know that we appreciate them."

The recipients:

- Kenneth Clay - Team Leader for Methodist Hospital
- Valerie Suggs - Nurse for Health and Hospital Corporation of Marion County
- Chanel Trotter - Neo-Natal nurse for Riley Hospital
- Briana Shouse - Nursing home aide for Traditions at Reagan Park
- Minister Lydia Davis - Outreach Minister at Barnes Methodist Church/Director at Faith Hope & Love Community, Inc.
- Robert White - Supervisor for the Central Supply Department at Sidney and Lois Eskenazi Hospital.

The scholarships will be awarded on November 24, 2020, at 11 am at the Financial Center Federal Credit Union at 7101 E 56th Street, Indianapolis IN. Attending press is asked to arrive by 10:15 am. Dr. Hampton, Deputy Mayor of Neighborhood Engagement will be in attendance.
